

Aadhaar not be linked with NATGRID: Prasad

New Delhi: Aadhaar number will not be linked with the National Intelligence Grid (NATGRID), the government clarified in Parliament on Monday.

“Let me assure the House that Aadhaar’s linking with NATGRID is not there...,” said Ravi Shankar Prasad, Union Minister of Law and Justice and Ministry of Information Technology, adding that the government even refused to hand over the biometric details even when it was approached by the Central Bureau of Investigation.

Full report, P6

No Aadhaar-Natgrid link

Manan Kumar

manan.kumar@dnaindia.net

New Delhi: Aadhaar number is not going to be linked with the national intelligence grid (Natgrid), the government clarified in Parliament on Monday. “Let me assure the House that Aadhaar’s linking with NATGRID is not there...,” said Prasad adding that the government even refused to hand over the biometric details even when it was approached by the CBI.

Natgrid, a programme of real-time networking of 21 databases with enforcement agencies to cross-link information and flag tripwires to predict or point out unlawful or terrorist activities, was envisaged and rolled out by former Home minister P Chidambaram during UPA-II.

Full report: www.dnaindia.com